```
input:
                                    A = ph.choose input(...),
                                    B = ph.file path(...),
                                    C = config["..."]
          path handler (ph)
                                output:
            o file path
                                    A = ph.file path(<name>,...)
            expand path
                                log:
                                     r output = ph.file path(<name>,...,log=True),
            choose input
                                     r script = ph.file path(<name>,...,log=True)
                                run:
                                     param1 = config["..."]
  import
               import
 salmon
                star
                                     script = textwrap.dedent(r"""
                                     library(lib)
                                     {R SESSION INFO}
                        pipeline
                                    if(TRUE){{
                                         x <- c("{input.A}","{input.B}")</pre> DESeq
                                         v <- "{input.C}"</pre> result <- libfunction({param1},x,y)
                                     }}
                                     saveFunc("{output.A}", result, sep="\t")
PCA
       contrast
                 report
                                    with open(log.r script, "w") as f:
                                         f.write(snakemake format(script)) shell("Rscript --vanilla '{log.r script}' "
          all
```

"&> '{log.r output}'")

rule <name>: